Introduction

This guide will show you how to book rooms in Outlook 2007.

Adding the room calendar

1) Click on Calendar

2) Click on Open a Shared Calendar

3) Type the first part of the room name, for example “gol”.
Click on OK

4) Select the room from the list of results.
Click on OK

5) You should now have the room calendar alongside your own. You can use the arrows in the tabs to maximise or minimise your calendars to save space.

Creating a Room Booking

1) Double click on a space in the room calendar to bring up the Appointment window.

2) Enter an event name (Subject) for the booking

3) Select the Location from the drop down list

4) Enter a description if you wish.

5) Click on Save and Close

6) You can edit your booking by double clicking it and repeating steps 1 to 5. You can also drag and stretch it in the calendar by clicking on its border.
