

BYLAW I PROCEDURAL BYLAW

PART 11 - MOTIONS

- 11.1 A motion, when introduced, brings business before the meeting for possible action. A motion should be worded in a concise, unambiguous and complete form and, if lengthy or complex, should be submitted in writing.
- 11.2 The presiding officer may divide a motion containing more than one subject and it shall be voted on in the form in which it is divided.
- 11.3 All motions shall be seconded except in committee.
- 11.4 An amendment is a motion to modify the wording of a pending motion. An amendment must be germane, i.e. closely related to or having a bearing on the subject of the motion to be amended. A motion can be amended more than once, however, there can be only one amendment on the floor at a time and it shall be dealt with before another amendment is presented, or the motion is decided. An amendment to an amendment must be germane to the first amendment and cannot be amended.
- 11.5 A motion to reconsider a decision can be made the day on which the original motion was voted upon, by a member who voted on the prevailing side. It may be seconded by any member. It is debatable if the motion proposed to be reconsidered is debatable and the debate can be on the merits of the original question. No question can be reconsidered twice.
- 11.6 Motions to rescind or to amend something previously adopted will be considered only if notice has been given at the previous meeting or in the call for the present meeting and if no action has been taken which it is too late to undo. Such motions are debatable, and debate can go into the merits of the original question. There is no time limit for these motions and they can be moved by any member.
- 11.7 Motions to rescind or to amend something previously adopted for which notice has been given require a majority vote to pass. However, if the original motion required a two-thirds majority of the Board, the same vote is required on a motion to amend or rescind.
- 11.8 A motion that has been defeated at a previous meeting can be moved again at a subsequent meeting only if notice is given in the call of the meeting.
